IDEAS.

The hardest argument to beat is

A man who knows it all has the most to learn.

If you do not know what to say, say it.

Many people are completely wrapp ed up in themselves, like a ball of

Some people give according to their means, and others according to their meanness.

People do not often profit by the mistakes of others because they are busy making mistakes of their own.

The Wide World.

The latest news from South Africa says that Gen. Buller's forces, after fighting Saturday and Sunday, have succeeded in driving the Boers back about five miles and have captured five Boer positions. The bombardment of Mafeking is steadily continu-

Supplies for the Transvaal are said to have been extra heavy during the past year.

Former consul Macrum, from Transvaal, is reported on his way to this country, bearing a letter to Pres. McKinley from Pres. Kruger.

Five companies of the 38th and 46th had a battle Saturday in Batangas W. E. Barton, of Oak Park, Ili., arrived here provice, losing one killed and three wounded, defeating 800 insurgents. The latter are heavily intrenched near Santa Cruz.

Recent news indicates that the British are slowly and surely closing in on the Boer positions and surrounding Jackson county, and that a telephone line conthem.

It is claimed that the bill providing for the Nicaraguan canal will soon be passed, or at least during the present Congress.

A trainload of beef for the Boers was recently purchased in Chicago.

STATE NEWS.

Another bribery case is expected to be exposed soon at Frankfort. The Republicans tried to bribe a Democrat, it is claimed. The Grand Jury is investigating.

Col. Colson seems to be improving and will doubtless get well.

Pension Agent Combs and Collector Roberts have gone to Washington. It is supposed that they go to consult McKinley about the situation of Kentucky politics, as both are known to have consulted Gov. Taylor and former Gov. Bradley before going.

The contests at Frankfort drag along, seating Democrats wherever that is possible, according to the make-up of the committees.

A bill to erect a $75,000 government building at Elizabethtown is expected to be introduced by Congressman D.
